Obituary

Georgia Mae Hewlett was born on January 14, 1948, to the union of the late George Keith, Jr. and Christine Horton Keith of Madison County, Alabama.

While her birth date marks the beginning of her earthly journey, even more significant was the day she was "born again," when she accepted Jesus Christ as her Savior and Lord. She united with Union Chapel Missionary Baptist Church, where she faithfully served in the Music Ministry as a devoted member of both the Unity and Women's Choirs.

Georgia was the embodiment of love and devotion as a mother, grandmother, and great-granny. She nurtured her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren with unwavering, unconditional love. She had a unique and beautiful way of making each person feel special - convincing everyone that they were her "favorite," and truthfully, they were. To know her as Mama, Grandma, Great-Granny, Aunt Georgia, Georgia, or Mrs. Georgia was to know a steadfast "anchor" you could always depend on.

A precious soul with a joyful spirit, Georgia was full of laughter and warmth. She never met a stranger - only friends she had yet to know. With a constant smile, joy in her heart, and often a song on her lips, she moved through life with humility, kindness, and gentleness. She uplifted and encouraged all who crossed her path. No matter the circumstance, she would listen, offer wisdom, and make sure you were well fed - sending you away refreshed and uplifted. And when it was time to part, she never said goodbye - only a cheerful "see you later" or "toodahoo," always with a smile.

On March 19, 2026, she answered the call of her Heavenly Father. Having caught a glimpse of the “Greater Glory,” she gently whispered her final “toodaloo” and transitioned from labor to eternal reward, resting in the loving arms of her Father.

She was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Pastor Richard Hewlett; her daughter, Melissa Hewlett-Clayborn (“Baby”); her son, Kenneth Wayne Hewlett (“Handsome Man”); her son-in-law, Kenneth Vance Clayborn; her brothers, Jack Smith, William D. Houston, John Jones, Sr., David L. Keith, Billy Fletcher, and Ronnie Horton; and her sisters, Bonnie Horton, Dorothy Sales, and Mable Keith.

“The days of our years are threescore years and ten...” Yet, God graciously blessed Georgia with additional years, allowing her to witness and cherish her family lineage extending to the fourth generation.

She leaves to cherish her loving memory and carry forward her legacy of love: her devoted daughter, Christine H. Davis; her loving grandchildren, Catrina M. Hewlett, Marvell A. Davis, Jr. (Sentrae), Crystal M. Hewlett (Maurice), Kendra J. Clayborn, and Kenneth V. Clayborn, II (Donnya); her adoring great-grandchildren, J’Kavron L. Clayborn, Nakiya M. Davis, K’Mya M. Moore, Audrey R. Davis, Kenneth V. Clayborn, III, Kaleeia Clayborn, Karson V. Clayborn, and Kaylyn M. Clayborn; her loyal siblings, Virginia D. Jones, James D. Smith, and Ernest D. Smith (Vickie); her supportive brother and sisters-in-love, Elder Milton L. Hewlett, Sarah Fletcher, and Joyce Robinson-Horton; along with a host of nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, great-great-nieces, great-great-nephews, cousins, and dear friends.

John 14:1-4

(NKJV)

Jesus is the Way to the Father

“Let not your heart be troubled; you believe in God, believe also in Me.

In My Father’s house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you.

I go to prepare a place for you.

And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you to Myself;

that where I am, there you may be also.

And where I go you know, and the way you know.”
