Obituary

Pauline Lacy, born July 29, 1940, in Triana, Alabama, lived a life defined by strength, generosity, and unwavering love for her family and community. She transitioned peacefully on April 5, 2026, leaving behind a legacy that will continue to impact generations for years to come.

A proud graduate of Council Training, Pauline believed in discipline, resilience, and personal growth, values she carried throughout her life. She dedicated more than 30 years of service to Chrysler in Huntsville, Alabama, where she was respected for her consistency, strong work ethic, and quiet strength.

Above all, Pauline Lacy was the heart of her family and a pillar within her community. She was a devoted mother, a loving grandmother, and a cherished great-grandmother. Her love was deep, intentional, and unwavering. She cared for many beyond her immediate family, opening her home to those in need without hesitation.

Her home was never empty. She welcomed others in, often housing those who needed support, guidance, or simply a place to feel safe. Her generosity knew no limits, and her heart was always full of love to give.

Pauline had a gift for bringing people together. Every Sunday, she prepared meals that became a gathering place for family and friends. Ortega Circle would fill with cars as people arrived in droves to commune, share laughter, and experience the warmth of her presence and amazing cooking. What she created was more than a meal, it was a sense of belonging.

She was both nurturing and strong. Pauline loved deeply, but she also stood firm, very protective of her family, and unafraid to handle whatever came her way. While she knew how to defend herself, she was far more likely to feed you, care for you, and make sure you were alright.

Known affectionately by those around her as their own "local CNN," Pauline was a source of connection, conversation, and community awareness, always informed, always engaged, and always bringing people together.

Her life stands as a testament to faith, service, strength, and the power of love in action. Though she is no longer physically present, her legacy will continue to live on through the many lives she touched and the generations she nurtured.

Her legacy is not only remembered, it is lived daily.

She leaves to cherish her memory a devoted and loving family: her son, who preceded her in death 2015, Charles Fredrick Lacy (Natarsha Campbell Lacy); her beloved daughters, Wendy Renee Lacy-Richardson (Kenneth Richardson) and Destiny Payton-Williams.

She was a proud grandmother of Rhannon Lacy, Nadia Stewart, Jemel Harper, and Law Williams, and a treasured great-grandmother of Austin, Tristin, Layla, Londyn, Jayden, and Lola Germono.

She also leaves to cherish her lifelong friend, Donnie Williams, whose bond with her was one of love, loyalty, and enduring friendship.

She was the youngest and last living sibling of 12.

She also leaves to cherish her memory a host of nieces and nephews.
