

Walter Lee Jones, a devoted father, son, brother, nephew, cousin, and friend, was born on September 19, 1996, in Huntsville, Alabama, to Constance Cooke-Jones and James Jones, Sr. His untimely departure on July 22, 2025, has left a void in the hearts of those who loved him dearly.

Walter grew up in a loving family and attended Lakewood Elementary, Ed White Middle, and went on to graduate from James O. Johnson High School where he excelled as an "A" honor roll student and participated in the school's band, football, track & field, and wrestling teams. He also attended J. F. Drake State Community & Technical College and AAMU.

Following high school, Walter pursued various careers as an auto mechanic, drag race engine tuner, heavy equipment operator, and correctional officer. He was a member of Union Chapel Missionary Baptist Church, where he served as a member of the junior usher board, and was a proud and active member of Pride of Lincoln Lodge #817 and OES Grace Chapter #894.

Walter was a passionate University of Alabama "Roll Tide" and Steelers fan, loved working on cars, a huge gun collector, and loved challenging his mind. He swore he was famous for his mouth-watering BBQ. He had a contagious smile and laugh that could brighten up anyone's day. A loyal friend to many, Walter cherished his close relationships with Rahdez Carter, Donald McCleod, Corey Blackmon, Rusty Adcox, CJ Jackson, and Mikael Freeman.

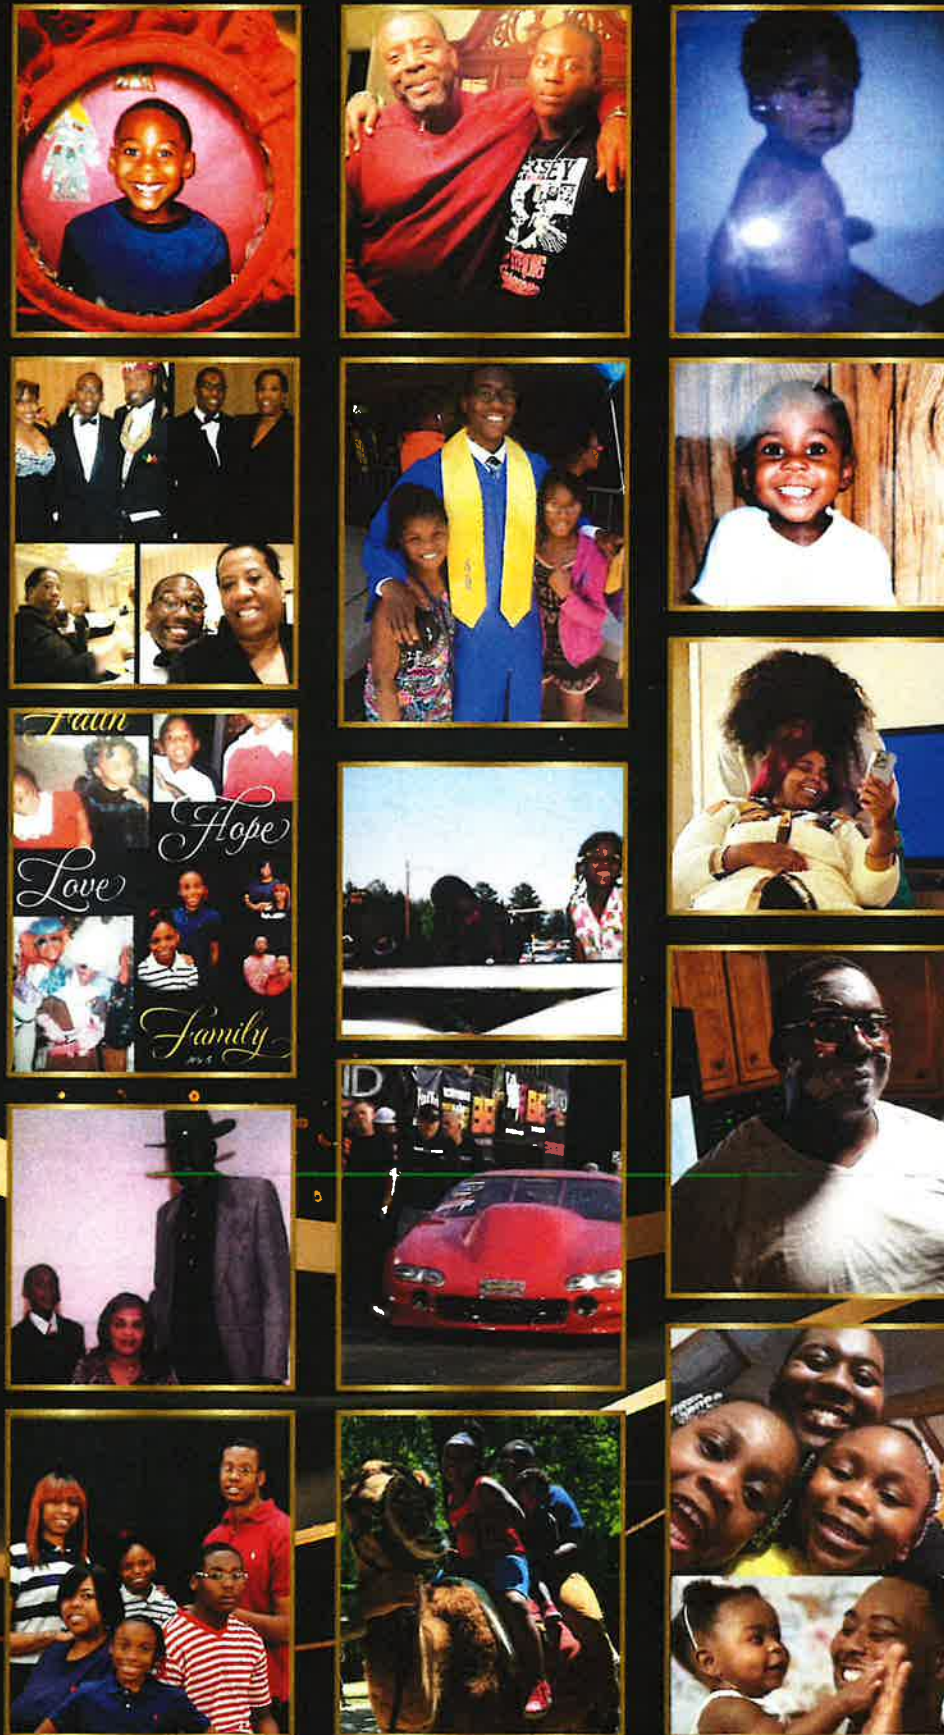

Walter was preceded in death by his grandparents, Gloria Rainer-Cooke and Charles Cooke Sr.; grandmother, Bessie Carter-Jones; godparents, Betty and Walter Rice; cousins, Jameca Frazier, Jahsere Reeves, and Kerion Rogers; uncles, Frank Jones, Arthur Jones, James Allen, and David Alford; and aunt, Ruth Jones and close friend, Johnny Bonner III.

Walter leaves behind his three lovely children, Ariel, Harmoni, and Juni Jones, which he loved dearly; parents, Constance Cooke-Jones and James Jones, Sr.; three sisters, Jamila, Marion, and Miracle; one brother, James II; niece, Tramani; nephew, Zaire; aunts, Crystal Cooke, Sharon Cooke, Gloria Taylor, Carla Cooke, Margarette Alford, Helen Cooke, Paula Cooke, Dee Jones, Kathy Jones, Debra Stevenson, and Marian Allen; uncles, William Jones and Charles Cooke Jr.; 2nd godmother, Angela Freeman and a host of cousins and friends.

To know Walter was to embark on an adventure; he was always there to offer a helping hand, share a laugh or work your last nerve. Walter's resilience in the face of challenges was truly inspiring, teaching us all the value of perseverance and optimism. Though Walter's time with us was cut short, the impact he made will last forever. His legacy lives on in the countless lives he touched and the memories he left behind. He left an indelible mark on the lives of all who knew him.

We will miss him greatly and we are grateful for the time we had with him. Take your rest, Walter!

THE Day God TOOK YOU Home

*You never said, "I'm leaving."
You never said, "Good-bye."
You were gone before I knew it,
And only God knew why.
A million times I needed you;
A million times I cried.
If love alone could have saved you,
You never would have died.
In life, I loved you dearly;
In death, I love you still.
In my heart, you hold a place
That no one could ever fill.
It broke my heart to lose you,
But you didn't go alone.
Part of me went with you
The day God took you home.*
